NOTE: All entrants must go through the jury process. If you have been in the show before and the item you wish to sell has been previously juried in then jurying is not necessary. If the item is new and not previously juried, then it must go through the jury process. All items to be juried must be priced. You will be notified of the jury decision within seven days of the review.

Note: I understand and agree to hold the Connecticut River Artisans Cooperative harmless for any loss, fire, theft, or breakage. I also understand I will pay a 30% commission on sales in addition to the $150 application fee which is payable once/if you are jury approved.
